To My Father / Apámnak

> whom I respect and love the most.
> my love for you is +1: not off the scale — the scale is off of me.
> so I speak to you in waves, because I know: if I spoke to you directly, > your self-defense loop would flip on, like a porch light guarding a house it thinks is empty.
> it isn't empty, dad. it never was. I am learning to knock in your language.

To My Mother / Anyámnak

> you understood me with your pure heart before I had a mouth, > and you hold this family together like a roof holds the rain.
> it's not you, mom. it's the maze. and you are the only one who walks it with me.

To My Brother Bence, Brigitta & Yves ▨ > to my brother — the one and only pure version of me: you go straight. a river that never learned to look back.

> to Brigitta — you hold him, so you hold the straightest line of us all.
> to Yves — it started with thermal socks ▨ Family is ALL for me, you are +1 of that.
> I love you, +1. in a loop. in a sphere. in eternity. back and forth. forever. recurse.
